

COMMITTEE HEARING ON RECALL AMENDMENT IS INTERESTING AFFAIR

DISCUSSION OF JAMESVILLE RECALL MOVEMENT TAKEN UP AT MADISON BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE.

DEBATE MOST HEATED

Nichols, Lay and Clancy Talk for Recallists—Pierce, Oestreich, Mouat and Dr. Beaton in Favor of Measure.

Special Correspondent.
By L. P. Bridgeman.
Madison, Feb. 28.—A thorough airing of Jamesville's controversy over the recall of certain city commissioners was given before the senate committee on education and public welfare yesterday afternoon when Senator Ackley's bill amending provisions relating to the recall was discussed. John C. Nichols, head of the recall movement, and former mayor, led the opposition forces and Attorney M. O. Mouat headed the forces urging a continuance of the present commission system and in opposition to an open town. J. M. Clancy, the Stoughton lawyer, who has been hired by the recall forces, also made arguments.

Ackley's bill provides that under the commission form of government either the mayor or other councilman may be removed after such officer has held office for one year. It also provides that no petition calling for the removal of an officer shall be filed while another such petition is on file and undetermined. The bill is clear in asking that the reasons for the recall shall be specifically charged in plain language. The number of petitioners required to bring about a recall is to be one-fourth of the electors instead of one-tenth which is the present quota. One-half of the number must be taxpayers. The faction which has presented petitions for the recall of the mayor and councilmen of Jamesville was bitterly opposed to the bill, while those who are fighting the removal of the officers want the bill passed.

Nichols Talks.
John C. Nichols in presenting the side of the opposition gave the committee some interesting data from his point of view respecting conditions in Jamesville. So far did he get from the subject at hand that he was reminded by the chairman, Senator Treadwell, that the body was not interested in personal attacks upon his fellow citizens. Nichols declared that the bill was drafted in Jamesville and sent to the legislature so that the intent of the recall as it now stands could be defeated. The former mayor said that on account of the "unbusinesslike" manner in which the administrators under the commission form of government had conducted affairs, business in Jamesville had fallen off. He said that those who were loudest in their "clamor" for the retention of the men in office and who were crying that the other side wanted to return the city to an alleged lawless element were collectors of revenue from houses of ill fame.

Objections Raised.
It was at this point that Senator Perry suggested that the speaker return to the discussion of the bill itself. He intimated that the committee would be more interested in a discussion of the merits of the bill in their general application to all commission-governed cities rather than in Nichols' personal feelings of Jamesville conditions.

Senator Ackley tried with indifferent success to draw from Mr. Nichols his views over what constituted "incompetency" sufficient to demand a recall.

"Should it be demanded that a recall shall lie for trivial acts or for gross incompetency, or how would you define the degree of incompetency required for removal?" asked the senator.

Nichols replied:
"When a majority of the people say that a man is incompetent, that looks good to me. Here's a case where 33 1/2 percent of the voters say a man is incompetent."

To further questions along this line Nichols said:

"If the people say they don't want a man in office, he should be put out of office, whether he is good, bad or indifferent."

Nichols admitted that he didn't want the recall weapon used for spite work or for trivial reasons.

Further Talk.
J. C. Nichols also stated in substance: "I am an ex-mayor of Jamesville. I left that office by reason of the adoption of commission government. I am now the recall candidate for mayor. I brought about the adoption of commission government in Jamesville. But for me it could not have been adopted. I am sorry I supported the commission government and had I then known what I know now, I would have opposed it and it would have been turned down. Everybody knows and will concede that I took the leading part in the commission government campaign and that the reason I did so was because as mayor I discovered my inability to enforce the law as it should be. I could have defeated it had I wanted to."

His Views.
"I am not in favor of a wide open town. I don't think the present law should be amended for the reason that we have had such a great struggle in having the petitions for recall signed. Whenever a petition states that an official is incompetent, that looks good to me. I contend that when one-third of the voters sign any kind of a petition showing they are displeased with an officer, an election should follow whether any facts are charged or not."

Lay Talks.
R. R. Lay in his statement gave as reasons for not filing specific charges that there was such a strong feeling of "incompetency" on the part of the recallers that they did not want to wound the sensibilities of the present officers. He said that as a follower of the humble Nazarine he regarded these officials as brothers and desired to handle them gently.

Mouat's Talk.
M. O. Mouat, attorney, led the discussion for the bill and was strong in his denunciation of the other side. He said it was not because the officials had been wasteful of the city's funds, as charged, that the recall had been attempted, but because the opposition wished to deliver the city to the hands of a lawless element which was alleged to have thrived in the city for a number of years before the present commissioners came into power. He called attention to the fact that the names of 47 out of 53 saloonkeepers were on the petitions asking for the recall.

"There hasn't been a single thing said here that militates against the benefits proposed to be accomplished by this bill," said Mr. Mouat. "We recall and will fight any attempt to emasculate it. Only decency compels that a recall petition state the facts about the charges, and not mere conclusions. If a man is charged with spoliation of public funds, there's no harm in having the facts stated in the petition, is there, Mr. Clancy?" Mr. Nichols stated here that there are six hundred names of tax payers on the poll lists in Jamesville. The fact is there are 1,800 taxpayers and voters on the poll lists.

"Who's to say what are the facts?" replied the Stoughton attorney.
"Let's have things clarified by the legislature," said Mr. Clancy, "and not by the supreme court."

Real Facts.
"Mr. Nichols says that the business of Jamesville will vote for this recall," continued Mr. Mouat. "The bill will not only one element in the business interests. The business back of this recall is the saloons—47 of them. The town was running wide open under the old regime and when things were cleared up by the new commissioners the old regime started this bill."

Rev. David Beaton, Charles Pierce and O. A. Oestreich also spoke for the bill and against a return to wide open conditions.

A bill to amend sub-section 3 of section 925m-307, relating to the removal of city officers by recall.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Sub-section 3 of section 925m-307 is amended to read: Sub-section 3. The mayor or other councilman may be removed at any time after such officer has actually held office for one year, in the following manner, but no petition calling for such removal shall be filed against any such officer while another such petition as to any member of said council is on file and undetermined. A petition shall be filed with the city clerk demanding the election of a successor to the person sought to be removed.

Section 2. This act takes effect when passed and published.

Those who attended the committee hearing as opposed to the measure were R. R. Lay, John C. Nichols, John F. Sweeney, Grant U. Fisher, Dr. D. B. Clark, and James Clancy of Stoughton. The Jamesville men favoring the measure present were, M. O. Mouat, O. A. Oestreich, W. H. Dougherty, former Mayor S. B. Healds, J. T. Hopper, Dr. Beaton, Judge Sale, Charles Pierce, John Peters, H. R. Bliss, Michael Hayes.

BIG THEFT OF COTTON FROM MILLS CHARGED

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Newport, R. I., Feb. 28.—William Dacey and James Holden of Fall River and Felix Breaux of Swansea, Mass., were arraigned in court today for trial on an indictment charging them with the larceny of cotton and cotton waste, valued at $12,000, from the Shore Mills at Tiverton. Holden is a well known manufacturer of cotton and rope banding and Dacey is employed by him. Breaux was a boss carter at the Shore Mills.

FORGER GOUGES OUT EYES WHEN HELD FOR OFFENSES

Los Angeles, Feb. 28.—Arrested for a series of small forgeries, A. J. Reiss, founder and former president of a large leather book manufacturing company of Milwaukee, gouged out both of his eyes today in self punishment.

HOTEL GUESTS DIE BY SCORES IN FIRE IN CITY OF OMAHA

Fatality List of From 20 to 75 in Second Class Hostelry Which Burned Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Omaha, Neb., Feb. 28.—Loss of life, estimated at from 20 to 75, resulted from a fire which destroyed the Dewey Hotel, a second class hostelry occupying a three story building at 13th and Farnam streets today. The fact that the hotel register was destroyed will make it difficult to obtain a list of the dead and while the manager says that about fifty persons were registered, others who were about the hotel asserted that many of the guests were not registered and the total number was more nearly 100. Of those not more than twenty-five are known to have escaped.

The known dead are: Mrs. Alice Bronnie, Charles Cummings, jumped from third story, neck broken; Beverly Waiter.

Three hours the fire raged furiously, the firemen being greatly handicapped in their efforts to subdue the flames by a freezing temperature and a biting wind. The guests were aroused by the rattles of the house as rapidly as possible and some few made their way to safety, scantily clad and dazed by the confusion, through dense smoke which filled the hall. Others, however, were unable to find exits and were either burned to death or suffocated.

Quite a number were injured by jumping from the windows and by falling timbers while still others were rescued only after suffering severe burns which in some cases will probably prove fatal.

The Dewey was a second rate hotel and it is believed there were many guests in the house who had not been registered, which fact will render all the more difficult the task of checking up the list of casualties.

The building was a seething mass of flames when the first company arrived. The fire burned with an almost fiendish fierceness despite the fact that many streams of water were poured onto the building from all sides. Dense clouds of smoke filled the rooms from cellar to garret and flames shot up many feet into the air when the roof was reached and poured out through the windows.

A number of women became hysterical, at least one of whom, Mrs. C. F. Wilkins, is believed to have gone insane. Another woman, a Swedish housekeeper in the hotel, is also thought to have lost her mind.

It is thought some of the guests were burned to death in their beds without awakening. Others are thought to have fallen into the flames below when some of the floors collapsed.

Shrieking men and women crowded into the hallways and down the stairs wearing only their night clothes. Many of the women were rescued by heroic firemen who ventured inside. Perhaps a dozen persons were carried to the streets. The known injured are:

Lyda Nelson, 2324 Dodge street, burned on face and body.
Iona Jennings, overcome by smoke.
Mark Henningsway, Ewing, Neb., overcome by smoke, may die.
Clara Newman, overcome by smoke.

Unidentified women overcome by smoke, will probably die.
E. C. Stiff, overcome by smoke.
One man, Charles Cuming, a bartender, leaped from a third story window. He struck on his head on the cement walk and was smashed into a mangled heap.

Mrs. C. E. Hawkins, who with her sister had room on the second floor, dragged her sister, Miss Alice Bonnevie to the window. There Miss Bonnevie collapsed and Mrs. Hawkins was forced to jump for her life. Two policemen broke her fall, but she was badly injured. Her sister's body is in the ruins.

Hears an Explosion.
Jesse D. Noid, night clerk, was the last living person to leave the building. He opened the door of his office on the second floor when he heard an explosion and was driven back with a puff of smoke and flames. He attempted to rouse a few guests on that floor, but was forced to go to the street, almost overcome, to save his life.

When the firemen had reached the scene people were already crowding to windows in the upper stories, but before ladders could be raised, however, the roof began to cave in and the unfortunates and not a single person was rescued by the ladder men. The basement into which the burning interior fell, within half an hour after the fire started, contains the bodies of not less than forty persons, declared Fire Chief Salter. There was no way in which to reach them for many hours after the building collapsed. The rear wall fell in on the mass and all were buried beneath hundreds of tons of debris.

CHOICE OF HOBSON PROVES ACCEPTABLE

Appointment of Alabama Man on Suffrage Investigation Committee Pleases Women Workers.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 28.—At the national woman suffrage headquarters today there was a glow of joy over the appointment of Representative Hobson of Alabama as head of a sub-committee of the house committee on the election of president and vice president and representatives for an inquiry into the question of proposed woman suffrage amendments to the constitution. Mrs. Mary Ware Dennett, secretary of the national association, said that for the last forty years congress had regularly appointed a committee to consider the suffrage question but the members were usually all men "bitterly opposed to woman suffrage."

She believed this to be the first time congress has taken the initiative in making an investigation and said that Representative Hobson was known as an enthusiastic supporter of the cause.

To Consider Question.
Washington, Feb. 28.—Congress has taken up the woman's suffrage question in earnest for the designation of a sub-committee, headed by Representative Hobson to inquire and report to the house the question of equal suffrage in the election of president and vice president to a constitutional amendment or the adoption of separate states. Various committees of congress have for many years considered proposed amendments, but none has ever reported.

To Conduct Inquiry.
Representatives Porter of Pennsylvania and Trible of Georgia will work with Representative Hobson in the inquiry which promises to be wide in its scope, and probably will take the form of a hearing.

The sponsors and opponents of equal suffrage will be heard and though no reports can be made to the present congress it is promised that the inquiry will be finished and a report presented to the incoming congress before it ends two years hence.

Senate Program Calling for Statement of Taft in Regard American Protection Fails to Carry.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Feb. 28.—Senator Poinsett today failed to have the senate call upon President Taft for a statement of what measures had been taken for the protection of American families in the city of Hermosillo in Mexico. The senator asked for consideration of such a resolution, but Senator Cullom of the foreign relations committee insisted that the resolution take the regular course of being referred to his committee. Senator Fall gave notice that he would address the senate on the resolution tomorrow.

INSTALLMENT HOUSES ARE HARD HIT IN BILL

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 28.—Branding all installment houses as dens for the leeching people, William Walsh assemblyman from Milwaukee asked the judiciary to pass favorably on a bill to compel installment houses to pay back one-half which the customer has paid in if the goods are taken back.

Hardware, furniture and grocery men appeared in opposition to the measure. They claimed it would protect the "poor and down trodden whom Mr. Walsh would benefit." Walsh claimed installment houses made from 60 to 75 percent on their goods.

TAFT VETOED WEBB BILL IN A MESSAGE

Washington, Feb. 28.—President Taft, in a special message to congress today, vetoed the Webb bill to prohibit shipment of intoxicating liquors into "dry" states. Questions of constitutionality were the president's principal considerations in his veto.

PEACE IS IMMINENT IN BALKAN AFFAIRS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Eng., Feb. 28.—A pronounced belief prevails in official circles here that peace in the Balkans is imminent. Tewfik Pasha and Haki Pasha, representing the Ottoman government, paid successive visits to the foreign office this afternoon, but nothing could be learned as to the nature of the conference.

SENTENCE MRS. LINDOFF TO TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Louisa Lindoff, who was convicted of the murder of her son to obtain insurance on his life today, was sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary.

NEW YORK ARSON KING GETS A MAXIMUM TERM

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 28.—George C. Grutz, a fire insurance adjuster and broker high in the councils of the so-called arson trust, was sentenced today to Sing Sing for a maximum term of twenty-two years and six months. He was convicted largely on the testimony of "Izzie the painter," of causing fires in east side tenements.

FELIX DIAZ SEEKS TO HEAD REPUBLIC; BECOMES CANDIDATE

Rebel Leader Formally Accepts Candidacy Today—Receive Official Word of Death of Emilio Madero.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Mexico City, Feb. 28.—Felix Diaz today formally accepted the candidacy for the presidency of Mexico.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Official announcement of the killing of Emilio Madero, brother of the former president of Mexico, reported several times recently, was contained today in a dispatch from Ambassador Wilson, who reported Madero shot while leading a rebel force in the northern states. This brings the death list of the Maderos in the recent Mexican troubles up to three.

The confirmation has been received of the reported death of Raoul Madero, another brother.

Conditions in northern Mexico, Ambassador Wilson reports, seem to be rapidly improving.

Mexico City, Feb. 28.—An important battle between the rebel government of Aguas Calientes, Alberto Fuentes and government troops under General Hidalgo is expected late today. The state capital is surrounded by government troops who last night began a siege. Gov. Fuentes is entrenched in the government palace in the center of the city, the building being guarded by a force of state troops much inferior to the army commanded by Gen. Hidalgo. A repetition on a less scale of the bombardment which occurred in Mexico City appears inevitable.

Another encounter is likely at Saltillo where federal troops under General Aubert and Greynio are about to close in on the rebels commanded by the defiant government of the state of Coahuila, Venustiano Carranza.

The isolation of Mexico City from the United States was complete today. Train service south of Aguas Calientes on the Mexican Central line is a halt owing to the occupied nature of that city by rebels while a similar condition at Saltillo prevents railroad operations to the north over the national lines. The roads of Tampico also are interrupted, making a detour by way of that port from the United States to this city impossible.

Ramos Martinez, who for several months conducted semi-official negotiations for peace between Madero and Zapata, declared today that Zapata would surrender and co-operate with the central government.

According to the private secretary of Provisional President Huerta the situation in the state of Sonora is grave. Bandidos, he said, are governing portions of the state and many families in the city of Hermosillo are abandoning their homes, fearing an attack. Gov. Jose M. Maytona has abandoned the governorship of Sonora and his place has been taken by Ignacia Desquerra. The retiring governor declined to support the new regime in Mexico City and is organizing troops to sustain his position.

APPLETON POLICE CHIEF, FRED W. HOEFER, IS DEAD

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Appleton, Feb. 28.—Chief Frederick W. Hoefer of the Appleton police force, the oldest chief in the state in point of service having been a member of the local force since April 13, 1877, with the exception of two years he was sheriff, died today from heart and liver trouble. He was a member of the G. A. R., Masonic Lodge, Modern Woodmen, E. F. U. and Odd Fellows lodge.

COMPENSATION ACT IS GAINING FAVOR

Largest Number of Elections Under New Law Were Made During the Past Month.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 28.—February takes first place in the history up-to-date of workmen's compensation in Wisconsin. In the 28 days of this month 82 employers have filed their acceptance of the act which sets forth a definite schedule of compensation to workers who suffer injury in the course of their employment or to dependents of workers who fall victims to industrial hazards. This is the largest number of elections in any month since the act became operative in September, 1911. The February elections represent 7,186 employees, making a total of 89,096 working people who are assured adequate compensation in the event of serious injury or death caused by a work accident.

The elections registered in the Industrial commission's records now reach a total of 712 and these apply to 1,442 places of employment. Every city and every county in Wisconsin is included in the list.

Although the increase in the elections under the act is greater than foreseen by the Industrial commission, which administers this law, they have not overtaxed the office machinery, for as long ago as September, 1911, the department heads installed an elastic system which covered every possible contingency; for this reason the great increase in volume of business has been handled without additional help or expense.

The notable increase in the number of employers who are accepting the terms of the act is attributed by the commission to several concrete causes. One of the chief causes is the commission to several concrete causes. One of the chief causes is the rapidly diminishing fear on the part of employers who, because of incorrect information or misunderstanding, hesitated to change their business policy. The commission's bulletins and members of the field force also have made it clearer that the compensation act is beneficial both to employer and employee because it eliminates the former waste of money, time and energy occasioned by damage suits. Employers and workmen are beginning to understand that they are assured a square deal by working direct with one another or through the commission without the intervention of agencies which consider first of all their own pecuniary interests.

The changed attitude of the insurance companies following a general reduction in rates under the compensation act has contributed to the increase in acceptances, and the formation of another employers' mutual insurance company has also brought many more employers under the law, with prospects of scores to follow.

MITCHELL WELL PLEASED WITH WILSON'S CHOICE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
La Crosse, Feb. 28.—When notified of the probability of president-elect William B. Wilson of Pennsylvania as secretary of the newly created department of labor, John Mitchell, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, expressed himself as highly pleased and declared he sincerely hoped the report of the selection would prove true. Mr. Mitchell paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Wilson and said he believed no better selection could be made.

CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT APPLIES HERE IN RECALL FIGHT?

ATTORNEY GENERAL GIVES OPINION ON MUCH MOOTED QUESTION.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 28.—Attorney General Owen's opinion that the corrupt practices act applies to elections under the commission form of government, actual or contemplated, makes it plain that the law was contemplated by the 1911 legislature to be so broad as to cover all political campaigns, and that it includes a movement to recall a mayor. The opinion is especially applicable to Jamesville where a recall movement against the present city commissioners is on.

ACTION MAY BE TAKEN

Might Result in Calling Grand Jury to Thoroughly Investigate the Situation.

District Attorney Stanley G. Dunlap of Rock county asked the question: "As no election has been ordered by the council, owing to the insufficiency of the petitions, would chapter 650 of the laws of 1911 (meaning the corrupt practices act) apply as to anything heretofore done by those interested in the proposed recall?"

The attorney general in his opinion said in part:
"The purpose of the corrupt practices act is well understood. It is to condemn many methods hitherto practiced in influencing votes at an election and to limit the amount of money that may be expended for that purpose. As a practical proposition, a campaign to recall a mayor is a state when petitions therefor are placed in circulation. The issue is at once formed and is, 'Shall the mayor be recalled?'"

"His friends are arrayed on one side, his opponents on the other. If from this time on to the time when the election shall be called, the corrupt practices act is not to apply to the activities of those interested on either side, and they are given carte blanche to resort to all the methods of campaigning condemned by the act, unlimited in amount and unrestrained in the use of money, much of the mischief which the act in question was designated to prevent, will have been accomplished."

"I feel certain that such a construction would be contrary to the spirit of the law. I feel equally certain that such a construction would be contrary to the letter of the law. It is difficult to conceive of language more inclusive than that contained in subdivision 1 of section 94.1."

"It plainly indicates a design on the part of the legislature to include every act carrying a political intent or bearing a political tinge. The expression 'at any election or primary' could not be broader. It includes an election called or to be called, certain or contemplated, and is certainly broad enough to cover a proposed election for the recall of a mayor, although such election has not yet been called and the calling thereof depends upon the filing of the petitions required by the statute."

"I am of the opinion that the provisions of the law apply to the situation mentioned in your letter of inquiry and am strongly convinced that those charged with the enforcement thereof act upon such assumption until it is held otherwise by the supreme court."

Just what steps District Attorney Dunlap will take in the matter is not known. It is probable, however, that he will insist on the committee of twelve which handled the recall petitions, filing a statement of their receipts at once. It has been intimated by persons thoroughly conversant with the sources of the revenue of the recall committee, that in order to obtain an exact account a special grand jury would have to be called. Whether the district attorney will take this action or not is not known.

LICENSE MONEY IS NOT FOR HIGHWAYS

Attorney General Owen Makes Ruling of Importance With La Crosse Township.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
La Crosse, Feb. 28.—A town cannot use its saloon license money as a basis for receiving state aid for the construction of its highways according to a ruling handed down by attorney general Walter C. Owen. The ruling was asked as a result of the town of Campbell which boasts of the most saloons of any town in the country voting a heavy road appropriation, enabled to do so through its large saloon license income and collected county and state aid in proportion to its appropriation. Other towns in the county which were unable to make like appropriations and therefore did not draw as much state and county aid, protested because of the amounts they were taxed.

COMMUNICATION THAT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

FOLLOWING ARTICLE WAS HAND-ED MADISON STATE JOURNAL YESTERDAY BY JOHN C. NICHOLS.

GIVEN FOR PUBLICATION

Is Printed So That Citizens Generally Can Appreciate the Issues As Set Forth by Recall Element.

In printing the following article which the correspondent for the Gazette at Madison forwards with the following statement, the readers of the Gazette are given an opportunity of learning the attitude of the alleged writer, John C. Nichols, on conditions in Janesville and the reason for the recall, according to his views. The article is published without comment, the public being left to judge of its qualifications.

Madison, Feb. 27, 1913.

The attached blast emanates from John C. Nichols, in my presence this afternoon, he handed it to a State Journal man with a request for publication, and I at once negotiated with the State Journal for the copy, thinking that it might interest you personally and not necessarily for publication in the Gazette. BRIDGMAN.

A true statement of the conditions as they exist in Janesville. The Janesville Daily Gazette, is responsible for the misrepresentations of the city of Janesville, which has caused many of the leading papers of the state to print articles which were untrue with reference to the conditions that really exist.

The writer has no criticisms to make of the outside papers, as they have every reason to believe the leading paper of our city would publish only such matter as would be for the best interests of the city in which it gets its support.

But such is not true of the Janesville Gazette, or the Janesville Associated Press correspondent, especially the correspondent, as he would have everyone believe that it was necessary for a man to carry a rifle on his shoulder when he comes to Janesville; that it was unsafe for a lady to even be found alone on the streets; and in other words, Janesville was a town of lawlessness and vice.

To inform those who do not know the true condition in Janesville, the writer knows that no such conditions exist and that Janesville is as safe and as good a town as there is in the state.

The business of Janesville has fallen off on account of the unfavorable advertising and the conditions brought about by the would-be reform committee of fifteen and incompetent commissioners.

Janesville voters signed two recall papers asking for the recall of the present mayor and two commissioners.

The first set of papers were thrown out or rejected by the city clerk, who is appointed by the mayor, because of a few technicalities.

The men back of the recall immediately circulated a new set of papers. The business men were not asked to sign the papers; and unless they insisted their names were not taken.

Out of 2,350 voters, the number of votes cast at the last presidential election, 927 signed the petition for the recall of the present commissioners.

The city clerk rejected 342 signatures, on account of their names not being on the last registration list. The recall committee had ten days according to law, to prove the legality of the signatures of the petition. In the short time the affidavits of 180 were taken showing them to be citizens of the state and residents of Janesville. The commissioners, who, according to the commission law, are to order their own funeral, found two signatures who claimed that they never signed the petition and made affidavit to same, and on these grounds the city clerk, who seems to be the judge and jury, threw out two petitions each containing 62 names, claiming that they had signed the other 61 signatures from being qualified electors. What a wonderful power invested in a $75.00 a month clerk appointed by the mayor and commissioners whom the people wish

STOMACH STARVERS EAT ANYTHING NOW.

No Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Sour, Gassy, Upset Stomach for "Pape's Diapiesin" Users.

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada, take Pape's Diapiesin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

to remove. The Janesville Daily Gazette is opposed to the recall and was opposed to the purchasing of the Janesville Waterworks. It has been reported that the owners of the waterworks paid men to circulate petitions to change the form of government in Janesville to commission form. The Gazette says that those representing the recall are a lawless element and that if elected, the city would be a wide open town. Such is not the case. The men that have been selected to run on the recall ticket are all good, high-class business men, and if elected will put Janesville right with the other cities in the state, and bring back the business that has gone to other places.

A large number of Janesville heavy tax payers have signed the petition for the recall of the present commissioners and 75 percent of the retail merchants are only waiting for a chance to vote to oust the present commissioners, and to elect three men that will take over the waterworks and that will not be influenced by the narrow opinions of the Janesville Daily Gazette.

The committee of fifteen are now trying to get an amendment to the commission law as follows:

The above bill shows what a certain few will do to keep men in power, those who are willing to do their bidding. It is the opinion of a large majority of Janesville citizens that the recall law as applied to commission government is all together wrong in that the important part of the law is left to the very one that it is operative on. The question of the legality of a petition demanding the recall of any official should be decided by some disinterested party, and not be left to a city clerk who is a beneficiary to the present administration.

In conclusion, the writer wishes to assure every reader that Janesville is a safe place to live and to visit.

REPRESENT CLASSES IN ANNUAL CONTEST

High School Students Will Compete Inter-Class Extempore Speaking Contest Tuesday.

Last Tuesday closed six weeks of extempore speaking at the high school, and on next Tuesday, the various classes will hold their respective contests to select four representatives from each class to enter the semi-finals and a future date. This speaking is a part of the regular program at the local school, and has met with much success in the past. This year the competition is high, and much rivalry is prevalent among the contestants. Every student in the school, hating the debaters, are required to take up this form of public speaking, and consequently it was difficult to pick those who will represent their various classes.

Following the class contest next Tuesday, the four selected from each class will compete with each other. To decide which four will represent the school in the annual extempore speaking contest this spring. The final contest, oratory, declamatory and poetry contests will be held in addition to the extempore contest. The students picked to represent their respective classes are as follows:

Senior—Alta Pfeiffer, Frances Hall, Olive Reynolds, Margaret Denning, Ralph Soulling, Harry Ryan, John Groat, Martin Kennedy, Fred Cummings and Roy Cannon.

Junior—Jesse E. Bell, Frances Brown, Marion Matheson, Victor Hemming, Mary Butters, Stuart Mont, Stanley Horwood, Maurice Wierick, Russell Smiley, Edward Atwood, Willard Field, and Herbert Brownell. Alternates, Fred Woolf, John Ferguson, and Thamar Sloan.

LINK AND PIN

Chicago & Northwestern. J. J. Burns Appointed As Trainmaster Of Wisconsin Division.

J. J. Burns, who has been yard master at the Janesville yards for the past three years, has received the important position of trainmaster of the Wisconsin division. This position is one of great importance and it is only because of Mr. Burns' efficient work at the local yards that the place was given him. His work and never failing good nature has made him a favorite among the railroad men and Mr. Burns has received many good wishes from his fellow workmen. He will leave tomorrow to take up his new work at an office on Forty-second street, Chicago.

Filling Ice House. Employees of the Northwestern are busy putting in the yearly supply of ice at the two houses. The work of filling the Janesville house, which is situated near the stock yards was finished at an early hour today. This ice is used for the dining cars and depots. This afternoon the workmen started to fill the smaller house at the yards. The ice was brought from Crystal Lake and is of extremely fine quality.

Many of the men at the yards are enjoying a day's rest and only men enough to run the working parts of the plant are working today.

Robert Erdman returned to work this morning.

J. M. Smith is confined to his home on account of sickness.

JESSE HALE STOCK COMPANY OPENS ENGAGEMENT HERE

Capable Cast Pleases Fair Sized House At First Performance At Myers Theatre Last Evening.

The Jesse Hale Stock Company opened a four night engagement at the Myers theatre last evening with the production, "Across the Desert." The company is composed of capable actors and the introduction of some really good vaudeville acts serves to strengthen the entertainment. Little Miss Hale quite captivated the audience last evening whenever she appeared on the stage and her song in the second act received much applause. Tonight there will be three short plays in which Little Miss Hale will also appear: "The Little Partner," "The Little Girl" and "The Burial." On Saturday night the attraction is "In Tennessee," and on Sunday night, "St. Elmo."

PHILOMATHIAN MEETING; LAUREAN PLANS SPREAD

Interesting News of the Girls' Literary Societies at the High School.

The regular meeting of the Philomathian Literary society was held last night. The entire membership is twenty-five. This number was divided last night into five groups, with four to six in a group. These divisions will have a leader, and at each meeting, one of the groups will furnish the program for the evening. Last night, Helen Taylor's group gave the program, which was very interesting. It consisted of short accounts on the life and character of Mary, Queen of Scots, and was given by Helen Taylor and Vesta Bradley. The subject of Queen Elizabeth was given by two other members of the same group—Eva Badger and Alma Gesteland. Another group will furnish the program for next Thursday.

Laurean Society.

The regular meeting of the Laurean which was scheduled for last night, was postponed until tonight, when a spread will be given by the senior and junior members of the society to the two lower class members. The meeting will be held after school for a short time, after which the spread will be given in the domestic science rooms.

USES RECENT TRAGEDY AS AN OBJECT LESSON

Supt. H. C. Buell Talks to High School Students on Dangers of Intemperance.

Superintendent H. C. Buell in a talk to the high school students this morning used the recent tragedy as an object lesson. He warned the young people against the forces which were continually at work undermining personality and character, and asked the boys especially to be on their guard. The tobacco habit, he pointed out, was often the first step on the part of young boys. The address was a strong one and the students listened attentively.

HOLD LOUIS BELDEN FOR DEATH OF RYAN

COMPLAINT OF SECOND DEGREE MURDER WAS FILED AGAINST HIM TODAY.

CORONER'S JURY SITS

Finds That Deceased Met His Death As Result of Loss of Blood From Slashes of Belden.

Murder in the second degree was the complaint made in the municipal court this morning against Louis Belden, confessed assailant of Edward P. Ryan, the St. Paul Railway switchman, who died yesterday morning as the result of loss of blood from slashes in the face and neck made with a razor wielded by Belden in a fight with Ryan near the wholesale grocery on West Bluff street about eight hours earlier.

The examination of Belden was set for ten o'clock Monday morning, March 3, and he was remanded to the county jail without bail. The trial of John Weston on the charge of embezzlement from the Rock River Woolen Mills has been set for this same hour and should it be decided to go ahead with it, the examination of Belden will be continued until a later date.

At 2:45 o'clock this afternoon the coroner's jury brought in a verdict stating that Edward P. Ryan met his death by wounds from a razor inflicted by Louis Belden.

The coroner's jury which conducted the inquest over Ryan consisted of Mr. Proctor, Paul Colvin, Frank Gendle, William Finley, Leslie Treat and J. P. Collins, went to the Ryan home, 120 South Academy street at 10:30 o'clock this morning for the purpose of viewing the remains. They were accompanied by District Attorney Stanley Dunwiddie, Justice of the Peace Stanley Tallman and Deputy Sheriff John Comstock.

Dr. George W. Fifield was the first witness examined when the inquest was opened at Justice Tallman's court. The district attorney conducted the examination, the court reporter, Miss McClain, recording the testimony. Dr. Fifield testified that he first saw Ryan yesterday morning at the Railroad Hotel, shortly after one o'clock. Ryan was seated in a chair, bleeding freely from cuts in the face and neck, and begging for a drink. The doctor said that two of the coroner men were in the room. His first action was to have Ryan laid on a table so that he could sew up and dress his wounds. These consisted of a long incision starting under the right nostril and extending to near the right ear. His upper lip was almost severed. Another incision was found over the left jaw running close to the jaw bone. There was a cut in the throat underneath the chin extending to but not through the windpipe; his right forefinger was cut clear to the bone, and there was a slight cut on one thumb.

The slash across the face was the most serious wound, the facial artery having been severed. In reply to the question of the district attorney the doctor stated that it was easily possible to bleed to death in consequence of such an injury, and that if the flow of blood from it had not been stopped, Ryan would have succumbed in half an hour's time. The other wounds in themselves could not have caused death as no large arteries were cut, but they were contributing causes.

Ryan was no delirious and violent during the time that his wounds were being dressed that it took four men to hold him. He was in such a condition that it was inadvisable to take him to the hospital. There was evidence to believe that he was in an intoxicated condition for he talked incoherently and kept saying: "Get the hell nigger."

Dr. Fifield next saw his patient at 8:10 o'clock the same morning. He was unconscious, his breathing and pulse were light and rapid, and the pupils of his eyes dilated. There was every sign of extreme weakness and approaching death. In an attempt to stimulate his heart action and respiration the doctor gave him a hypodermic injection of nito glycerine, digitalis and strychnine, but the condition of Ryan was such that the stimulants brought no response. He gave as the cause of his death loss of blood from incised wounds and shock.

William Connelly, who works in the lunch car on Academy street but a few yards from the scene of the fatal struggle was the second to be examined. He said that saw Ryan for the first time Wednesday night at about eleven o'clock. He came into the lunch car, ordered three sandwiches and took them out. He next came in about midnight, remained there but a very few minutes, and came back about 12:15 o'clock. Ambrose Ryan, his cousin, Hugh Flaherty and Carl Dudley were then in the place. Belden did not come in until about one o'clock.

A Madison piano tuner, whose name he did not know, came into the car at about 11:45 o'clock. Edward Ryan accused him of being responsible for his arrest at McShane's saloon some time ago, and said he was going to hit him. He went out soon after the piano tuner did. Ambrose Ryan, his cousin, fearing that he would make trouble, went over to the depot and tried to persuade him to go home, but he insisted on going back to the lunch car. As the piano tuner had not yet been able to get a train out of the city, and he feared that Edward would return to the depot and start trouble, Ambrose Ryan also returned to the lunch car. The accounts of Connelly and Ambrose Ryan correspond closely, that of Ryan being more detailed.

Belden came into the car after Edward Ryan had returned from the depot and as he entered made a remark to the effect that he was a "tough guy" and that he was a circus trooper. Ryan then accused Belden of refusing to let him join his "gang" several years ago and said that if he wanted to fight to just come outside. To this Belden retorted, "I can run better than you can fight." Ambrose Ryan did not think there was a possibility of a fight between them and when Edward Ryan went out shortly after Belden left, he did not follow him.

No more was seen of Belden's victim until about ten minutes later when a cry was heard just outside and the occupants of the car went out and found him with his coat pressed close against his face and covered with blood.

The testimony of Roy L. Stoddard, night clerk at the Railroad hotel, and Patrolman Harry Smith was concerned with what transpired after Ryan was carried into the hotel and brought out some points not learned from earlier testimony. They agreed with Dr. Fifield that Ryan had been drinking although they would not say he was intoxicated as he was able to walk normally.

Stoddard stated that Ryan had tried to cash a check for $55 at the hotel at about ten o'clock and also tried to telephone to the Sheridan hotel. His account was largely given up to what was done for the wounded man before Dr. Fifield came.

Chief Appleby related the circumstances attending the arrest of Belden and Belden's account of the affray. Belden intended to go to Baraboo, Wednesday morning, to join Ringling brothers' circus, and was going to "beat" his way there on a freight train. He had hardly left the lunch car when Ryan struck him in the head, but he did not take the blow seriously and walked on. Soon Ryan threw something at him, and he ducked to escape being hit. As he did so Ryan grappled with him, threw him, and began to gouge his eyes. To defend himself he pulled out the razor which he carried in a small leather case suspended from his neck and slashed blindly at his opponent. When Ryan released his hold he ran away and escaped to the new yards where he stayed until the time he gave himself up.

Funeral services for Edward Ryan will be held at St. Patrick's church at nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

A FAST GAME.

A mighty fast game is assured all basket ball fans who see the game at the Rink Friday night, Lakotas versus the Turngemeinde Blues of Chicago.

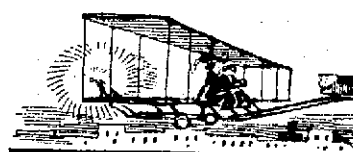

THE DAILY NOVELETTE UP IN THE AIR

The gulls were dipping to and fro; The cowpunks all had died; The world asleep save me and John; And we both liked them fried.

"We are now 7000 feet above terra cotta," shouted Curly, "that's above the roar of the engine. That's Pittsburgh we just passed. That's Washington. That's Boston."

"Oh, oh!" screamed the beautiful society bud. "I'm frightened! I wanna get out! I'm gonna jump! Oh-h-h!"

"You can't jump; you'll fall. Besides, you're strapped in!" shouted

the aviator. "That's Ohio. That's Nevada!"

"Undo the straps!" she wailed. "I wanna jump. Oh-h-h!"

And that's the way she carried on until with two spiral flips and a subway wriggle, the aeroplanist dived back to the aviation field in Kansas City.

As one report the reporters crowded up to her and begged for her sensations.

"It was perfectly glorious!" she told them. "I wasn't a bit afraid and I'm just crazy to try it again!"

And that's the way it went into the papers.

ARRANGES FOR BAIL IN ALIENATION SUIT

George Schard Makes Arrangements For $2,000 Bail in Case Brought Against Him by Henry J. Rook.

George Schard of this city, residing at 626 Prospect avenue, who was arrested on Wednesday night charged with alienating the affections of the wife of Henry J. Rook, also of this city, on complaint of Mr. Rook, was released at two o'clock this afternoon after he had made provision for $2,000 bail bonds. An old friend in the town of Rock came to Schard's assistance.

Rook claims that his wife who has been absent for the past few weeks has deserted him for Schard, who claims that he knows nothing of her whereabouts. Rook, it is said, is also ignorant of where his wife is located. He seeks $10,000 damages.

The complaint in the case was filed in the clerk of the circuit court's office this afternoon.

JANESVILLE CARDINALS PLAY MADISON TEAM TONIGHT

Manager Langdon of the Lakota Cardinal team received word last night that several members of the Turngemeinde Blues team were sick and it would be impossible for them to come to Janesville to play tonight as scheduled. This was a great disappointment for the Janesville team as the Blues are the best team in Chicago and the local team was in fine shape to hand them a trimming. Arrangements were made for a Madison team to play here instead of the Blues and it is understood the visiting team will be composed of the members of the Wisconsin Reserves who defeated the Cardinals a short time ago and showed the best ability of any team that has played here this year. While the game with the Chicago team would have been of sterling quality the clash between the Lakotas and the Madison team will be a battle for revenge on the part of the Janesville team, and promises to be the best game of the season.

Roller Polo.

Reports from Racine indicates that Captain "Pitz" Reichert is not going to take any chances of losing - the game with the Janesville team here Saturday night. On Thursday night Racine played and defeated Kenosha and is in fine condition to play the Moose team. The Racine team will present a stronger lineup than in any previous game when she meets the local team for the mighty "Pitz" himself will be in the battle and several crack eastern players who have signed up for the rest of the season will comprise the team. As this game is for leadership the teams will battle with all possible force to win. Captain Kilmer stated this morning, "The game will be a close one and we expect to hold Racine to a close score despite their added strength." Janesville and Racine are tie as far as winning games each winning one and the Janesville team is planning, after a week's diligent practice to grasp the lead and hold it.

Rebekahs Go to Orfordville. Thirty members of the Janesville Rebekah Lodge No. 26, went to Orfordville this morning to help form a lodge in that village. Mrs. Ruth Longman of Grantsburg, who is president of the Wisconsin ladies, accompanied the Janesville ladies to help in the organization.

Sport Shop Shots by Dad McCarty

Once again one is moved to say that it's tough to be a champion. Here is this fellow Hiding, who last year set a world's high jump record of six feet seven inches. Since then he has quit Stanford University and started traveling for a San Francisco sporting goods house. Yet he can't stay out of the game. He is a member of the San Francisco Athletic Club and slated to appear in several of its meets. Hence, he has found it necessary to get down to serious training in order to perform up to his reputation as a high leaper.

Hughes Jennings vociferously boasts that he has the only stoneware French battery in captivity. He figures that he will have no trouble wooing Jean Dubuc away from his announced intentions of teaching the Parisians baseball and counts on pairing him off with Rondeau, who for two seasons past has backstopped in the International league.

"There have been all sorts of batteries during my baseball days," said Jennings the other day, "but I have the genuine imported article in Dubuc and Rondeau. Years ago Sadie McMahon and Robbie were the dumpling battery which won much fame. Then there came the sauerkraut battery, Theodore Bretzenstein and Heine Peliz; the pretzel battery, Gerzen and Ganzel; the pony battery, Pond and Rovermont; the Irish battery, Ed Walsh and Billy Sullivan; the shadow battery, Ed Gilmore and Connie Mack. But there never before has been a slatted battery."

OFF TO LAKE MILLS FOR GAME TONIGHT

Janesville High School Five Hopes to Add Another Victory to String.

The high school basketball team departed this afternoon at four o'clock for Lake Mills where they play the high school five of that city tonight. This is the local last league game of the season, outside of the Beloit game, and they are well prepared for the struggle with hopes of a victory. The team was especially jubilant as the result of the bright news from Appleton concerning the chance of winning the state title. The locals have a long string of victories so far this season and are hoping for a chance to lengthen this list. Their record this season is as follows:

Janesville, 24; Alumnus, 16; Janesville, 40; Stoughton, 6; Janesville, 25; Evansville, 17; Janesville, 23; Beloit, 16; Janesville, 59; Jefferson, 9; Janesville, 54; Port Atkinson, 6. The team as they will line up tonight will be: Atwood, 17; Dalton, 17; Henning, 17; Edler, 17; Captain Faller, 17; L. Stewart and Kuhlrow will be the substitutes.

DISCUSSED MERITS OF BILL.

On Thursday afternoon an interesting discussion of conditions that exist in Janesville at the present time, the pros and cons of the present recall movement, and matters referring to Janesville in general, were taken up before a senate committee at Madison and thoroughly threshed out. The discussion was created by the hearing on Senate bill No. 125, introduced by Senator Ackley of Chippewa Falls and sought to amend the present section of the law governing the recall of city officials in cities operating under the commission form of government. As the measure directly affects the conditions that exist in Janesville at the present time, representatives of both sides of the question were present and aired their views on the merits of the bill in question. This measure is printed in full in another column of the Gazette tonight. The measure should be passed, not alone for the benefit of Janesville at the present time, but also to prevent any other similar happenings in various cities of the state now operating under the commission form of government, where recalls may originate, without cause, but for personal reasons of the recall elements, as in Janesville at the present time. It is to be hoped the committee which heard the discussion on Thursday will make a favorable report to the senate so that the real merits of the case can be brought to the attention of the people of the state at large.

MERITORIOUS BILL.

State Senator Tensdale of Sparta has introduced a bill in the present session of the legislature that is most meritorious in its requirements. In that it directly affects Janesville and the commission form of government it is reprinted in full. It should be passed and enacted into a statute.

A bill to amend sub-section 1 of section 925m—304, and sub-sections 1, 5, and 6 of section 925m—308 of the statutes, relating to commission government for cities.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Sub-section 1 of section 925m—304, and sub-sections 1, 5, and 6 of section 925m—308 of the statutes are amended to read: (Section 925m—304). (1) At the election held, as provided by law, upon the first Tuesday in April next succeeding the adoption of the provisions of sections 925m—301 to 925m—319, inclusive, there shall be elected a council consisting of a mayor and two other members. Any person possessing all the qualifications of an elector in such city other than the qualification of residence therein shall be eligible to election as mayor or other member of the council, but no person who is interested, directly or indirectly, or whose wife or child is interested directly or indirectly, in the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors shall be eligible to any such office. Both the mayor and the councilmen shall be nominated and elected by the voters of the city at large.

(Section 925m—308). (1) If any city shall adopt the provisions of sections 925m—301 to 925m—319, inclusive, all duties, liabilities, authority, powers and privileges theretofore imposed or conferred by general law or special charter upon the mayor and council, and the several administrative and executive officers, boards and commissions of such city shall be deemed to be conferred and imposed upon the mayor and the councilmen provided for by said sections, and all laws relating or referring to such mayor and councilmen in force at the time of the adoption of the provisions of said sections shall apply to and be deemed to relate and refer to the mayor and council.

(5) All boards and commissions created and existing under laws heretofore in force in any such city shall continue to exist and all powers, authority, jurisdiction and duties conferred and imposed upon such boards and commissions shall remain unaffected by this act, except that the mayor shall not be ex officio a member of any such board or commission. Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to cities of the fourth class unless adopted by the mayor and councilmen herein provided for.

(6) Upon the first Tuesday in May, following the re-organization of any city as provided for in sections 925m—301 to 925m—319, inclusive, and annually thereafter, the council shall select from among their number some one to act as a member of each of such boards and commissions. Such members so selected shall have all the power and authority vested by law in any other member of such board or commission, and shall serve as a member thereof so long as he shall remain in office or until the council selects his successor. In cities which have heretofore re-organized under the provisions of sections 925m—301 to 925m—319, inclusive, such selection shall be made at the first regular meeting of the council after the passage and publication of this act, and annually thereafter on the first Tuesday of May.

Section 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

It is a long lane that has no turning and perhaps the road has turned at last now that the explosions of the recalls have occurred in Madison and they have been given an opportunity to voice their sentiments at a committee hearing on a measure which, if passed, would make it difficult for them to convince the public they are in earnest in their movement to change the present form of civic government.

The project to move the state fair from Milwaukee to some other part of the state will probably meet a swift and sure death when it comes up for a vote. It will doubtless, however, cause some spirited discussion in both the assembly and senate before final action is taken.

Unofficially but positively, it may be announced that the fears of Washington milliners and dressmakers that the president-elect's wife and daughters will set an example of simple living in dress, are not shared by husbands and fathers in any city.

All is quiet at Madison beyond spirited committee hearings and the armed truce that exists between the governor's office and that of the insurance commissioner's is most wonderful to witness.

One of the women appearing in the Washington suffragist parade will wear a ball and chain as a symbol of her sex's bondage. Wouldn't a hobbie skirt answer the same purpose?

At least Madero can't be accused of shortsightedness. His last dispatch to Washington said he "expected definite results very soon."

General Felix Diaz says he does not want any office. Which is not the first time he has manifested marked signs of human intelligence.

Great Britain needn't make any scornful remarks about the Big Policeman of the Western Hemisphere. There's Turkey, you know.

The suffragists now wish to abolish the title "Miss." Still, the young women are accomplishing a good deal in that direction already.

Mr. Wilson will have to revise his ideas about sleep after March 4, unless in the meantime all the Mexicans eliminate one another.

More cabinet troubles in Japan. There's no room for doubt now about the thoroughness of the modernizing of that country.

At least President Huerta isn't in any doubt as to what will happen to him in case he falls into the hands of the opposition.

A big maple syrup crop is predicted in some sugar-bush counties. Score one more good start for the young year.

There is news in the ads for every one—every day.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

At Last.
There is always something said about a funeral, although it may seem humorous to the choir singers and the undertaker. The only feature of a funeral is seen in the relatives all sitting in one room and eyeing one another up, trying to make up their minds whether to speak to one another or not. When James Spink was buried two of the cousins got into a fist fight over a line fence that both of them had forgotten twenty years before and James was upset before the minister and undertaker could pry the cousins apart.

He called upon the editor along in sixty-nine.
And was informed his story was still waiting in the line.
He asked for information as to when it might appear.
The editor told him that it might perhaps, come out most any year.
Jim Purdy waited patiently and lost his teeth and hair.
And bought each issue hoping he would find his story there.
He talked about it all day long and dreamed of it at night.
His great-grandchildren's children could not understand him quite.

One day the mail man brought a check. Old Jim picked up his ears.

"Was what he had been writing for high on to ninety years?
That week was sure a lucky one. The magazine came too.
He trembled with excitement as he looked its pages through.
His one hundred and seven years all seemed to leave him when He let a warwhoop out which seemed to make him young again.
"I'll write some more," he cackled, as he quite forgot the past.
"I've lived to see the thing in print.
They've published it at last.

From the Hickeyville Clarion.
Somebody stole Constable Ezra Hand's dark lantern last week and he ain't been able to detect much crime since. He says he ain't naming no names, but he has seen his dark lantern on a certain automobile in this town been used as a headlight and it ain't returned at once somebody will get persecuted. Anse Ditsy owns the only auto in this burg and this is believed to be a clew.

The constable is now on the trail of the culprit who dropped a lean slug in the horseless planter down at the Golden Nugget buffet and got a tune for it. He says the wave of crime in this village has got to stop or he will know the reason why. He has got nine men in the calaboose on suspicion and as every one of them had fifteen or twenty slugs in his pocket when searched the constable believes he will land the guilty party before very long.

Deacon Pringle has asked several young men their intentions toward his daughter, Miss Amy Pringle, our popular milliner, and not one of them would admit that he had any intentions whatever, so the deacon has put a sign on his front gate: "No admittance Except on Business."

ORPHANAGE TO BENEFIT BY WILL OF SUICIDE

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New Orleans, La., Feb. 28.—With the probate of the will of John Wright, the White Children's Orphanage of this city today received the fund left by the man who committed suicide Feb. 14 in a spectacular manner before the eyes of a number of women and children. Wright hung a noose on a sign board in a vacant lot in a fashionable section of the city and shot himself twice before passing away. Beside the body was a letter requesting that his money, which had been left in a safety deposit box, be given to the orphan's home. The amount was $721.

ASSEMBLYMAN PAULU IS VINDICATED BY COMMITTEE

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Feb. 28.—Assemblyman John Paulu was vindicated yesterday afternoon by the committee on elections. Charges were preferred against him by Former Assemblyman Metcalfe of Milwaukee, that Paulu had violated the corrupt practice act. A trial was held at Milwaukee and Paulu was discharged. Inasmuch as the same evidence came before the committee a similar action was recommended. Paulu has been holding the seat in the assembly since the legislature convened and the action of the committee will permit him to draw his salary of $500.

A Bushel of Potatoes

It is not enough for the farmer who raises a crop of potatoes to know the size of the potato crop in his own section, nor is it enough for him to know all about the potato crop for the entire country. He should be informed regarding all other crops; because the price he should receive for his potatoes is not based solely on the potato crop, but is influenced and affected directly by the volume and price of other farm products.

The Crop Report which this Bank issues each month, brings together the statistical compilations of all the various crop authorities, and aims to furnish the grower with exact information, as near as may be, regarding the volume and price of all crops everywhere.

These Reports should be of great value to any grower and will be furnished without charge on request.

Marvelous Merchandise Moving:

Each year finds every person engaged in thoughts of refurbishing either their wardrobe or their house. The day of the refurbishing is here. A million workers at wheel and loom, in factory or shop, are depending on your obedience to your desires. Your gratification to your desires adds to the prosperity of the nation and adds its power to the wheel of progress. The amount of merchandise moved by this store every year would be marvelous indeed were it not that people have grown accustomed to it. For let but a rising of the sun, let but a creation of the world happen twice and it ceases to be marvelous, and yet a walk through the store shows many, many good things never even mentioned to the public. Each year finds us better able to supply your needs than the preceding one. That is as it should be. When it ceases to be so it will not be The Big Store.

Taft and Cabinet Prepare to Leave Present Positions

Packing in Anticipation of Exodus
Next Week—President's Plans
Are Completed.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—President Taft and the members of his cabinet are packing up in anticipation of the exodus next week. The departure of the president and his official advisers and their families will leave many gaps in Washington society. Many of the present cabinet officers have had a residence in the capital for ten years in various capacities, while the Secretary of Agriculture has held his post for fifteen years consecutive. The time for their retirement is at hand, however, and the most of them will probably leave Washington for good.

President Taft's plans for the immediate future have been completed. Immediately after the inauguration of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Taft, with Mrs. Taft, Miss Helen, and several friends, will leave Washington for Augusta, Ga., to become the guest of that city until March 27, staying at a hotel there. When his vacation in the South is concluded Mr. Taft will go to New Haven to take up his duties as ambassador. He will reside permanently in New Haven, but will spend his summers at Murray Bay, Canada.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox came to Washington twelve years ago, when the former entered the cabinet of the late President McKinley. During their long residence here they have become thoroughly identified with Washington society. With the change of administration, however, they intend to give up their residence here. They have planned a trip to Florida, to begin the day after inauguration. They will be at Palm Beach and other resorts until the first of May, which month they expect to spend in Washington. They will then go to their summer estate at Valley Forge for the summer and in the fall will return to Pittsburgh, where Mr. Knox will re-enter the legal profession.

Franklin MacVeagh, Secretary of the Treasury, is the only member of the cabinet who intends to retain his residence in Washington. Before he entered the cabinet Mr. MacVeagh was engaged in the wholesale grocery business in Chicago. When he took up his official duties, however, he practically severed his business connections and he does not contemplate taking up an active career again. He has a handsome home in Washington and expects to divide his time between this city and his old home in Chicago.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Stimson, the very last addition to the present cabinet, will return to New York, where Mr. Stimson will resume the practice of law.

The Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham will leave Washington immediately after the inauguration and one week later they will depart from San Francisco for a trip around the world. Their travels will occupy six months and possibly more. Upon their return home they will resume their residence in New York. Mr. Wickersham expects to re-enter the law firm of Strong and Cadwallar, of which he was the senior member, at the time he entered the cabinet.

Postmaster General Hitchcock's plans for the future are not definitely settled. He has been a resident of Washington for many years, but it is understood that he will leave the city when he retires from office. He will take a long vacation in Europe and upon his return he will probably reside in New York. It is understood that he has several good business offers in that city.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer, who have been active leaders of Washington society, will be greatly missed. Immediately after inauguration Mr. Meyer and his family will go to Florida for a month. He will give up his residence here the latter part of April, when his lease on the magnificent house he occupies in Scott Circle will expire, and will remove to his summer home at Hamilton, Mass. Eventually Mr. Meyer will resume the active management of the importing firm of which he was the head until 1900, when he entered national public life.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Fisher, who joined the cabinet circle about eighteen months ago, will return to Chicago, where Mr. Fisher will re-enter the law firm of Matz, Fisher and Boyden.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, the ranking member of the cabinet in point of service, expects to return to his old home in Tama County, Iowa, and re-engage in farming.

The Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Nagel propose to return to St. Louis, where they made their home prior to Mr. Nagel's appointment in 1909. Mr. Nagel will resume the practice of law.

WOULD PROHIBIT LIQUOR IN PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS

Passage of Gorecki Bill Affecting Milwaukee Schools Is Urged Before Assembly Committee.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Feb. 28.—The legislature was called upon in strong language to pass the Gorecki bill prohibiting the sale or dispensing of liquor in parochial school houses, in arguments before the assembly committee on excise and fees by John Wedda, agent for the Polish schools of Milwaukee, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Wedda painted a picture of demoralization among school children as a result of bazaar in the Polish churches and schools where liquor is dispensed and children led to take the first step toward a downward path. He had seen cases of young girls placed under the influence of liquor in churches and afterwards enticed. He had seen many men of small income induced to spend every cent they received on payday at such entertainments. He deplored a condition where a man in a cassock at a church entertainment lends his encouragement to buying liquor for children, under the justification of parish benefits.

J. B. Smith of Madison and Mrs. M. A. B. Smith spoke on the moral and legal aspects of the bill, commending it as a step in the right direction. No one appeared against it.

The Gannon bill to repeal the Baker law regulation the number of saloons in municipalities was scheduled for hearing, but to allow W. H. Austin, attorney for the brewers, to be present, it was continued for a week. Mr. Gannon remarked that he believed further discussion or the presence of every resident of Wisconsin to take sides on the question would not change a vote, in view of the views on the question submitted by liquor dealers and brewers in the hearing on the 'brewers' divorce bill.

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in February and March or Face May Stay Covered

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all Summer unless removed. Now is the time to use othine—double strength.

This prescription for the removal of freckles is the discovery of an eminent skin specialist and is so uniformly successful that it is sold by Badger Drug Co. under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.

God's Covenant With Abraham. Gen. xv; xvii:1-8.

Golden Text—He is faithful that promised. Heb. x:23.

(1) Verse 1—What do you consider was the nature of this vision and the kind of voice with which God spoke?

(2) Why is it not the privilege of every devout person to see and hear God?

(3) What is the reason that we rarely hear in these days of people having visions and holding conversations with God?

(4) Verses 2-4—What had God previously promised Abram concerning his posterity? (See Gen. xiii:15-16.)

(5) When we have had a promise from God which is a long time in being fulfilled, and there seems no human possibility of it ever being done, is it sinful to doubt? Why?

(6) In those days children were prayed for and regarded as a great blessing. Why is it not generally the same in these days?

(7) Verses 5-6—When Abram was worrying because he could not harmonize God's promises with existing facts, God repeated his promises and made them more emphatic. What lesson may we learn from the incident?

(8) Is belief of God a matter under our own control? Why or why not?

(9) Why was it that Abram doubted at one moment and had such sublime faith the next?

(10) Why is belief of God accounted to be such a righteous act, and unbelief to be so sinful?

(11) Verses 7-11—How often may we expect God to really speak with us, taking Abram's experience as a precedent?

(12) Would you say or not, and why, that God likes to have us ask for proof of his promises?

(13) When Abram was asking for evidence, why did God tell him to offer up the sacrifice as here stated?

(14) What influence has worship and sacrifice upon our doubts?

(15) What are the sacrifices which God demands of us today?

(16) Verses 12-21—Does God sometimes instruct us in our sleep or during other times when we may be unconscious of Him? Give your reasons.

(17) How many years actually intervened, and what great events happened to Abram's seed, before they possessed the promised land?

(18) Chap. xvii:1-8—When is a good man more likely to shine as a Christian—in youth, middle life or old age?

(19) God commands us to be perfect; is such a commandment keepable or not, and why?

(20) Why did God change Abram's name to Abraham?

(21) What was God's covenant with Abraham, and how was it kept?

(22) What is God's covenant with us and what assurance have we that it will be kept? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Hints on Hair Health

If you use our treatment, we will either stop your hair from falling or pay for the treatment ourselves.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe, which if not removed causes baldness. This microbe often comes from a comb or brush belonging to someone else.

If you are troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair, or baldness, we believe that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do more than anything else to remove the dandruff, destroy the germ, make the scalp healthy and stop falling hair, and if there is any life left in the roots, also promote growth of new hair.

We believe that probably 65 per cent of the cases of baldness could be overcome if people would only use Rexall "93" Hair Tonic for a reasonable time, as directed.

We don't want you to take our word for this. We want you to test the merits of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. If you use it and it does not give satisfaction, just come back to us and tell us, and we will immediately send back to you the money you paid for it. You promise nothing, sign nothing, and your mere word will be taken for it.

We are dependent upon your confidence and patronage, and we would not make these claims, or make this offer if we did not believe that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the very best hair preparation you can use. Two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00.

You can buy Rexall "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store:

TO LENGTHEN ENTRY LISTS ON SATURDAY

Farmers Are Urged to Send in Blanks
Not Later Than Saturday Afternoon or Evening.

Substantial additions to the already long list of entries for the mid-winter fair will be received at the Commercial Club office in the Jackman block on Saturday. Secretary Lane, who has the show in charge, is urgent in his request that all entries be made no later than Saturday afternoon or evening, and he is also desirous that the exhibits be brought to the auditorium on River street as early as possible on Monday morning in order that the work of arranging them may be completed by noon.

The earlier indications of a large show are fully substantiated and it is certain that in point of number of exhibits and in the matter of attendance the fair this year will surpass any other event of the kind ever held in Janesville. Farmers everywhere are enthusiastic and the merchants have entered into the spirit of the affair with active and liberal support. City people as well as those in the country will be interested in the exhibits. The show will be free to the public and it is safe to predict that the crowds during the latter part of the week after ribbons have been placed will equal any that have attended any affair given at the rink.

WORK PROGRESSING ON NEW GYMNASIUM

Foundation of Running Track is Completed—Upper Floor Ready Within Two Weeks.

Work on the new gymnasium at the Y. M. C. A. is progressing with all possible speed. The running track foundation is finished and the carpenters expect to finish the track this week. Emil Pautz, the contractor, predicts that the gymnasium will be finished in about two weeks. The railing and rubber to the track remains to be finished and the floor has to be laid. The track when completed will be the finest in this part of the country with the exception of the one installed at Beloit college. The turns will be banked and the entire course will have a covering of rubber making it fast and sure. The sides of the walls have been built over with hard wood presenting a very fine appearance. The gymnasium will be equipped with a fine basketball court and will be the best Y. M. C. A. in this part of the state.

PARCEL POST

HOW TO USE IT.

(The new parcel post law includes some perplexing provisions. The Gazette is from day to day presenting a concise explanation of some of the more important sections of the law).

Eggs will be accepted for local delivery when so packed in a basket or other container as to prevent damage to other mail matter.

Eggs will be accepted for mailing regardless of distance when each egg is wrapped separately and surrounded with excelsior, cotton, or other suitable material, and packed in a container made of double corrugated pasteboard, metal, wood, or other suitable material in such manner as to place each egg on its end and to prevent them from striking together or against the side or top of the container, with an outer cover of double corrugated pasteboard, metal, wood, or other suitable material, and wrapped so that nothing can escape from the package. All such parcels must be labeled "EGGS."

The Gazette Parcel Post Map gives the zone limits, rates and all the provisions of the law. It is a good Geographical map of the United States and for a quick comprehension of the parcel post law is invaluable. This map is now on sale at 25 cents, if called for at the Gazette office, or 35 cents by mail.

The map is FREE if you pay one year's subscription in advance to the Daily Gazette.

The Theatre

THE GENEROSITY OF MIZZI HAJOS

Little Mizzi Hajos, the petite Hungarian prima donna of "The Rose Maid" which will be seen at the Myers Theater Wednesday evening, March 5, is always "broke" as she expresses it. And it ain't because Mizzi (as everybody in the big company familiarly calls her) does not receive salary enough to more than supply the wants of even a prima donna much larger than her diminutive self—Mizzi's shortage in the money market is due to this fact, but rather because the good Lord when he created her, made her all out of proportion. He made her heart about six times as large as her pocket book.

Mizzi is always plunging her tiny fingers to the very bottom of her purse for the benefit of some less fortunate member of the company. If some chorus girl is without silk stockings this little prima donna takes forth one of her very best pairs for the girl. Should a stage hand's wife need medical attention, Miss Hajos is the first to call in a physician (at her own expense), send delicate dainties and foots all the bills. She invariably heads every list of subscriptions for needy ones. Mizzi's charities are slowly driving her manager to distraction and he threatens to get out an injunction restraining her from them.

EXCESS FREIGHT CHARGES CAN BE FILED LATER

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 28.—If the bill recommended favorably by the committee on transportation of the assembly passes both sessions of the legislature claims for excess freight charges may be filed anytime within two years. The measure is similar to the provisions in the interstate commerce act and the idea of the bill is to make the proceeding in each case uniform. When the railroad commission act was passed it contained a provision that claims for excess charges might be filed within six months. The legislature two years ago extended the provision to one year and the bill to make the provision uniform with the interstate commerce act was introduced by Assemblyman Holmeyer. The railroad officials made no objection to the measure at the committee hearing.

The committee this morning reported for death the Frederick bill requiring a thermometer in all railroad coaches. It appeared from the arguments that the state could not require the installation of these thermometers on interstate trains. The provision would simply satisfy those passengers who wished to discuss the weather, according to some of the arguments before the committee.

Paul's bill permitting street and interurban railroad companies to carry freight was recommended for passage. A bill by Assemblyman Hamata of Racine, to require the railroad commission to serve notices on city officials ten days in advance of a hearing to change the street car schedule was recommended for passage, with a slight technical amendment. Next Wednesday and Thursday the committee will take up the bills relating to the telephone companies of the state.

UGH! HOW CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL

A few Doses Relieves All Such
Miseries: Bladder weakness,
Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism promptly Vanish.

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with backaching, kidney trouble, have disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders to contend with or be tortured with rheumatism, stiff joints, and its heart wrenching pains, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Croxone is the most wonderful remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid, and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. It acts on the principal of cleaning out the poisons and removing the cause.

It soaks right in through the walls, membranes and linings like water in a sponge, neutralizes, dissolves, and makes the kidneys sift out and filter away all the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and urinary organs clean, strong, healthy and well.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what you have used, the very principal of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it, and relieves you the first time you use it.

If you suffer with pains in your back, and sides, or have any signs of kidney, bladder troubles, or rheumatism, such as puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous tired and run down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Croxone will quickly relieve you of your misery. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

"MUTT AND JEFF."
Maybe you haven't laughed for so long that your face has become caloused. If so it's time to "loosen up." Physical and mental exercise often cheats the doctor. Somehow, or other, people like to cheat a doctor. Try it; go and see "Mutt and Jeff" and laugh your "bleamed head off." A rip roaring laugh may enable you to keep your "Appendicitis" money. You know it's fashionable now-a-days to have a fund ready to present to some needy doctor for relieving you of your appendix when he has urgent need of the money. Go to the Myers Theater Tuesday evening, March 4. "Mutt and Jeff" is going to be there for a one night stand.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP WINS AT BRODHEAD

Green County City Votes for Purchase of Electric and Water Power Plants by Municipality.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Brodhead, Feb. 28.—At a special election held on Thursday on the question of municipal ownership of the electric lighting plant and water power, there were 348 votes cast—213 in favor and only 35 against the proposition.

The Brodhead Chaminade club held an open meeting at the home of the president on Thursday evening, at which time the program was furnished by pupils from some of the grades of the public schools, that was much enjoyed by the large audience present.

Hereafter the local order of Royal Neighbors will hold their meetings in the evening. The next meeting will be March 5, at 7:30 o'clock.

The marriage of William Hall and Miss Rose Luchsinger is announced to take place at the home of the bride on Sunday, March 2. Miss Florence Moor takes Miss Luchsinger's place at the central telephone office.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler and family have moved to Beloit where they will make their future home.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bliss, on Tuesday, Feb. 25, a baby boy.

Born, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, on Wednesday, February 25th.

WOULD CHANGE DATE IN SCHOOL ELECTION

by Changes Time From July to May.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Feb. 28.—Assemblyman Viebahn's bill to hold the school election the first Monday in May, instead of the first Monday in July, as has been the custom for twenty years, was recommended for passage by the assembly committee on education. No other changes are made in the present law, except that the officers whose terms expire on the first Monday in July, 1913, shall continue in office until the first Monday in May, 1914, when their successors shall be elected. No one appeared in opposition to the measure. Another Viebahn bill recommended for passage by the committee provides that state aid shall not be given to high schools unless such schools have fifteen or more pupils in regular attendance. It was claimed by Mr. Viebahn that there were three or more schools in the state drawing aid that had a fewer number of pupils.

Scanlon's bill providing that in cities of the fourth class police officers may act as truancy officers, was also recommended for passage. No action was taken on the Anderson anti-fraternity bill. It is understood that the measure will come up for discussion in executive session next week. At that time Assemblyman Viebahn intends to offer a substitute to the Anderson bill. There seems to be a growing belief here that the committee intends to recommend the anti-fraternity measure for passage. The committee on cities, of which Assemblyman C. E. Estabrook is chairman, favorably recommended K. A. Johnson's bill which provides that where a county owns a large part of land within a school district that the county board may vote a sum of money to the support of that school district, even though its land is exempt from school taxes.

Alcohol for Ink Stains.

Ink stains from a fountain pen on a light woollen vest can be removed by applying alcohol and rubbing between the hands as though washing it. Apply alcohol about a dozen times and the spot will be gone.

DINNER STORIES

"Dearest," ecstatically murmured the enamoured poet, "don't you think we would make a good couplet?"
"Ah," sighed the dear girl, nestling still closer, "I am not averse."

At a Christmas masquerade hall a squad of young sentries stood guard out in the cold. As the ball progressed, the conductor of a certain disguised as a Santa Claus astonished and perplexed everybody. This Santa Claus would dance with the prettiest women for 15 or 20 minutes, and then, hurrying to the buffet, he would drink a bottle of champagne and eat lobster salad, ices, caviar sandwiches, truffled turkey—everything in sight. The host, after several hours of such gluttonous and intemperate conduct on the part of the Santa Claus guest, conferred with the butler and to his amazement learned that the offender had, by actual computation, devoured 40 sandwiches, 60 ices and eight quarts of lobster salad; while he had drunk 31 bottles of champagne and 90 glasses of punch. It seemed incredible! Yet there he was, as vigorous and fresh and sober as ever, now whirling compliments in a pretty matron's ear, now rushing to the buffet for more wine and more lobster. Puzzled and vexed, the host took Santa Claus by the arm, and led him into a recess.

MRS. SIMCOE HAD ITCHING HUMOR ALL OVER HEAD

Tried Everything. Almost Gave Up
Hope. A Little Resinol Cured.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 11, 1912.—"Sores began to break out all over my head and on the inside of my ears. They would gather and run, and where they would run it would make another sore, and my head finally got so bad, the way it itched was terrible. I slept with my head wrapped up to keep from scratching in my sleep, it was so severe. I also had dandruff and falling hair. I tried several different salves and took different kinds of blood medicines, but nothing seemed to do any good. We were talking of cutting my hair off.

"I had been troubled almost two years, and almost gave up all hope of ever being cured, when a friend advised me to get Resinol. I got a jar, and began using it with Resinol Soap, and found relief after a few applications. We used the first jar of Resinol Ointment, and about one-half of another, and I was entirely cured." (Signed) Mrs. W. R. Simcoe, 3081 Bellevue Street.

Better proof even than such a letter, is to try Resinol yourself and see how quickly the itching stops and stubborn sores or scalp sores are sold by all druggists. For full trial, write to Dept. 6 T, Resinol Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md.

Little Arithmetic Problem.

If twelve persons were to agree to dine together every day, but never sit exactly in the same order around the table, it would take them 13,000,000 years at the rate of one dinner a day, and they would have to eat more than 479 million dinners before they could get through all the possible arrangements in which they could place themselves.

Too Much.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

A HOUSEHOLD EFFICIENCY CLUB.

ARE you tired of the word efficiency? I hope not, because I have a lot more to say on this subject. Furthermore, I want you to have a lot more to say. In short, let's have a household efficiency symposium.

I suppose the majority of my reader friends are women, and the majority of these women are home makers. And I feel sure that more than the majority of these home makers are alert, progressive women, anxious to invent short cuts and keen to take advantage of other women's ideas.

Very well, then. Why not have a woman's exchange of short cuts? Send them to me, and every few weeks I will give over the column to publishing them.

Seems to me we can help each other a lot this way. Don't be afraid of saying something obvious. What is obvious to you may be a new view point to your neighbor, or it may be something she has known, but hasn't ever put into practice. Your mention of it may be just the jolt that will jolt her out of her rut. For instance, every woman must know that she will save energy and time in clearing off her dining table if she uses a tray. Big tin trays can be bought for ten cents apiece, and yet I doubt if one woman in ten uses a tray.

I read in an efficiency article the other day that you should always have the dish drainer on the left of the dishpan, because you naturally wash the dishes with the right hand and lift them out with the left, and if you have the drainer on the right you must lift the dishes awkwardly across. I have most emphatically proved the value of this little point.

Furthermore, I find it increases my speed to make the extra effort to place all dishes of a kind together in the drainer, instead of haphazard. One uses a certain set of motions in wiping each dish and if one wipes all of a kind together, one does not have to change the gear, so to speak. Of course, this is the principle on which all factory work is done.

Again, did you ever study the position of your hands in dish wiping? It seems to me that if you hold the left hand close to the drainer, bring the dishes to it with the right hand, then deposit the dish with the left hand while you reach for another with the right, you can wipe very rapidly.

An English housewife gave me this intelligent hint for sweeping day. "If you want to sweep under a bureau or chest of drawers, remove the lower drawer instead of moving the whole thing."

"Pull your bed out and go around the head instead of the foot" was offered me as a short cut, but somehow it never seemed to help me. Perhaps it may fit your case.

Don't be afraid to send the simplest suggestion. Show you are alive by joining our household efficiency club—one idea the fee for membership.

ing and heavy for my body at that season." Yes, to be well and strong, and that spells happiness, we must know what we eat, not so much of it, but that which builds and nourishes.

Fourth—The starches which produce this energy may be white bread, rice, sweet and white potatoes, macaroni, hominy and chestnuts, and one may be substituted for the other; turnips, I never will not take the place of potatoes. Suppose you decided to have potatoes and turnips and found you had neither, substitute rice and onions or macaroni and creamed cabbage.

DELICACIES FOR OCCASIONS.

When a change from the ordinary is desired, try making a banana salad like this: Use a potato scoop and cut out the balls from firm bananas; put back into the carefully opened skins, cover with French dressing, and serve.

Frozen Cheese With Figs.—Mash two good-sized cream cheeses, beat them with a half cup of whipped cream, sweeten to taste, pack in a mold and bury in ice and salt four hours. Cut in rounds with a biscuit cutter, make a depression in the center of each with a spoon and place in each a preserved fig, stem end up.

Cream of Spinach Soup.—Press a cup of cooked spinach through a sieve, add a pint of thin white sauce and a pint of chicken broth. Season with salt and white pepper, and serve, poured over the yolks of two eggs mixed with a half cup of cream.

Oysters in Grape Fruit Cups.—Save the shells of halves of grapefruit; chill by standing in cold water. Fill with chilled ice, lay an oyster on each half shell in depressions in the ice with a lemon quarter in the center, or a shell of lemon peel filled with a sauce to be used on the oysters.

Celery Boulettes.—Chop some celery and cold boiled potato until you have a cupful of each; add an egg yolk, a tablespoonful of butter, half a cup of pecans. Moisten with milk and mold into balls; dip in egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat. Serve with a sprig of parsley on each.

Steamed Salmon With Potato Balls.—Pick up the contents of a large can of salmon, add salt, pepper and a tablespoonful of lemon juice. Fold in a small cup of cream, which has been whipped; put into a buttered mold and steam three-quarters of an hour. Turn out and surround with potato balls dipped in butter and rolled in parsley.

Macaulay Not a Musician.—Macaulay was entirely insensitive to the charms of music. We find him writing from Windsor castle, January 14, 1851:

"At table I was between the duchess of Norfolk and a foreign woman who could hardly speak English intelligibly. I got on as well as I could. The band covered the talk with a succession of sonorous tunes. 'The Campbells Are Coming' was one."

And Macaulay's biographer, Sir George Otto Trevelyan, supplies the following instructive footnote: "This is the only authentic instance on record of Macaulay's having known one tune from another."

IF ELECTED SHE'LL SCATTER GRAFTERS

Miss Virginia Brooks

Miss Virginia Brooks, the well-known West Hammond, Ind., reformer and suffragist, has announced her intention of becoming a candidate for justice of the peace against Frank Green, the present incumbent.

"If I'm elected I'll make it hot for some grafters I know," says Miss Brooks. "I shouldn't be surprised were I compelled to pay a little attention to Mr. Green."

Serious charges have been made against Green in connection with his administration of the office.

Beneath the Surface of the Inauguration

OUR national capital is in gala attire today. The flags are flying, bands are playing, and the air resounds to the beat of marching feet. Euphoria is everywhere.

In these outward appearances, it may seem like many another inauguration. But beneath the surface, there is quite a difference. Today's enthusiasm reaches deeper. It comes nearer to the heart of things, because the nation has been stirred in many ways as it has not been stirred for many years.

The inaugurations of decades past, with perhaps a sporadic exception or two, have been the continuing in power of one party. And though that party and its adherents rejoiced, every one generally felt that after the ceremony at the Capitol was over, the pulse of national life would beat about the same as before. And so, though there was a passing interest in the affairs as in a good show, when the entertainment was over, the interest largely died out.

But today's inauguration introduces a new regime; and every one, friend or foe, is keenly interested in the outcome. Not only is the leader of a different party installed in the White House, but the complexion of the law-making body has changed radically from that of past years. The new party in power has, one might say, free hands. And "What will it do?" is the question every one is eagerly asking.

For just at present, this question is most important. Not perhaps since slavery times, has the country been stirred as it is at present, over grave issues. And so the people everywhere are alertly waiting for the answer to the query. And they are not in a mood to be put off with subterfuges or evasions.

And not only is the whole electorate aroused and interested as it has not been for many years, but another issue has come prominently to the front with the election. Woman has stepped upon the political platform, and has quietly taken an allotted place there. She is no longer there by favor. She is no longer there merely to petition for recognition. She has won the recognition she is accredited. She has the same legal right there as has anyone else occupying a place. And though her battle is not yet wholly won, she has won so much that the end is in sight.

And so the thinking women of the land are looking toward Washington today with hopeful and happy hearts.

Thus, in many ways today's inauguration comes nearer the hearts of the whole people than has an inauguration for many years. It is more than a ceremony. It is almost a sacrament. It marks a new birth in national life. Today we step nationally into a new era. New elements have come into our national life—new evils, new needs. A party practically with new ideals has taken the reins of government; and in many places, upon these reins, is seen the slender hand of woman.

So it is little wonder that the interest in the inauguration reaches far below the surface, and stirs the heart of the whole people.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have two or three hairs on my head which I can't make stay down. My lady friend gets peevish when she notices them. Will you please tell me how to keep them down?

Get a little gum, traganth at the drugstore. Put a tablespoonful of it into three tablespoonfuls of water. Let it soak over night. It will make a gummy substance. You can add a little toilet water to it. Anoint your stubborn hairs with this and press them down flat. I think they will stay down.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 15 and deeply in love with a young man of 22. He has a good position in a store and there is some class to him. My parents approve of him as a man, but think that he is too old for me. I am sensible for my age and a good housekeeper. He is very devoted to me and wants me to elope. Should I do so, or are my hopes blasted for life on account of the wishes of my parents? I can never love another.

Wait until you are at least 18, my dear. If he loves you truly, he will be glad to wait until you are more of a woman. You are not physically fit to be married now. Ask your good old doctor what I mean by that and he will tell you. Be your mother's little girl for a while longer. You will be happier for it afterward.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 28, but young looking and very pretty. I am madly in love with a young man of 20. He seems to like the girls better who let him take privilege with them. Should I let him put his arms around me and kiss me and

Clean hair brushes with GOLD DUST

To clean hair brushes without injury, have ready two basins, one three-fourths full of boiling water and the other with the same amount of cold water. In the boiling water, dissolve a teaspoonful of Gold Dust washing powder and shake the bristles up and down in the solution until they are thoroughly clean, then at once rinse well in cold water and stand the brush to dry in the air or in a warm place, but not too near the fire. Of course the back of the brush must not be wet.

Good hair brushes are costly, but if properly cared for they will last for years.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

By DR. T. J. ALLEN, Food Specialist

CAUSE OF PELAGRA.

A physician reader asks if a diet consisting largely of corn-bread and salt pork would be likely to cause pelagra and if the addition of fresh meat would improve the diet. Italian investigators sometime ago arrived at the conclusion that pelagra is due to eating rancid corn, which forms a large part of the diet of the poor Italians. Later a commission appointed by the State of Illinois clearly demonstrated that pelagra is not due to eating corn, at least not if the corn is fit to eat. Some investigators have arrived at the conclusion that rancid fat is the cause of this disease and that spoiled corn is as likely to be the cause as any other food. There is no good reason for believing that fresh meat would prevent the disease under any circumstances.

IF you're building a new house, to be painted; or if the house, or barn, or other property you now have needs painting, get acquainted with the facts about Devco Lead-and-Zinc Paint.

It will save you a good deal of money; takes fewer gallons for a given surface, and lasts longer than ordinary paint; saves painter's time for mixing—better mixed than by hand.

It's economy in first and last cost. Insist on Devco Lead-and-Zinc paint; of your painter.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY ECONOMICS CLUB

Mrs. E. L. Rasey of Beloit Named to Head Society at Annual Meeting —Mrs. Strathearn Gives Address.

The annual meeting of the Summer club of Household Economics was held yesterday in the parlors of the Methodist church. It was called to order at two-thirty by the president Mrs. A. M. Glenn. An election of officers resulted in the following list: President Mrs. E. L. Rasey of Beloit; vice president, Mrs. Sol Carr of Milton; secretary, Mrs. Frank Lowrey, Footville; treasurer, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Janesville; corresponding secretary, Nellie Gaarder, Orford; auditor Mrs. George Scott, Avalon.

The regular business of the club was then transacted and thirteen new members voted into full membership. A committee was appointed to revise the constitution and by-laws. A delicious dinner was served at the noon hour by the Methodist ladies to about one hundred of the attending club women.

In the afternoon a pleasant program of musical and literary numbers was given. Mrs. W. T. Shearer and Miss Belle Shearer gave a piano duo, Miss Esther Barker and Miss Kueck recitations. Mrs. Bita Rose a song recital and Miss Gertrude Hemmingsway a reading from "Lady Teazle."

The state president of Women's clubs, Mrs. Sophia Strathearn of Kaukauna, then gave a very interesting and practical talk on the needs and purposes of club life. She especially urged that all club women give close attention to the bills coming up in the state legislature this winter, regarding the status of women and children and give their influence to those that were worthy of being passed.

Mrs. Laughlin also made the request that the ladies would remember to register at the polls next month, that they might be able to vote on school questions at the coming elections, as several important matters were to be voted on.

Mrs. George J. Rumrill read the report on the philanthropic work of the club and a collection of $14.31 was taken up which will be added to the fund for philanthropic purposes.

The afternoon program closed with a violin and piano duo by Marguerite Thorne and Doris Amerpohl. The first picnic of the club will be held at Emerald Grove in June, details for which will be announced later.

Try Laughing at Yourself.

In Woman's Home Companion in the course of a talk to girls about friendship with boys, appears the following wise observation: "It is not a bad idea at all to laugh at one's own failures. It indicates at least that you have imagination; that you can imagine how funny other people must think something that you have done."

SIDEWALK SKETCHES

MASSAGE

—(By Howard L. Rann.)

MASSAGE is a French word which is pronounced by closing both eyes and striking out bodily with the front teeth, after which it is rolled under the tongue and discharged in a grateful tone of voice. When correctly pronounced, which has never happened to anybody's knowledge, it sounds like, filling the teeth out of a rip saw.

The most popular form of massage is that which is applied to the face by barbers who use it to restore the bloom of youth and give the complexion the chaste look of a ripe tomato. This is accomplished by holding the customer in the chair with one hand and piling several strata of hot towels on his face with the other, the nose being covered up carefully so that the victim can struggle in small, uninterrupted sections. When the barber is satisfied that he has raised all the blisters necessary to a neat and workmanlike job, he removes the towels and waits until the customer has caught up with his breath.

The second degree of a facial massage consists in painting the countenance with a pink lubricant, after which an electric suction pump is applied and allowed to play blithely up and down the jugular vein. This is a playful device, and will cause a man to forget his surroundings with great ease. It then becomes necessary to blister the patient again by applying the towel's in a molten condition, when more lubricant is put on and rubbed in with the utmost venom. Then a few more parboiled towels are thrown in for good measure and the process is sprinkled with a popular asstringent known as bay rum.

Massage treatment will cure anything that can be gotten at from the outside. It consists in going through the same maneuvers that are used in exercising on a zinc board, combined with the art of the Swedish Turnverein.

FIRST CONTEST IS HELD IN INTERNATIONAL DEBATE
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Winthrop, Minn., Feb. 28.—The first contest of the new triangular international debating league, composed of Fargo College, the University of North Dakota and the University of Manitoba, takes place tonight, and promises to be one of the most interesting events of the college year. Each institution is represented by two teams, one debating at home and the other abroad. The subject of debate is: "Resolved, That for Canada and the United States the responsible form of cabinet government is better than the presidential form."

For the Shopping Bag.
Sew a very large safety pin in your shopping bag. Then hang by means of smaller safety pins your door key, samples of cloth, memoranda and such things. They will be handy when you open the bag and save poking down and around and about the bottom of the bag for these things.

No Longer Crankey About His Meals

Has Perfect Digestion From the Use of a Well-Known Remedy That All Can Obtain.

M. L. J. QUINN

The temper of the family and the good cheer around the table, depend so much on the good digestion of each individual present that the experiences of some former dyspeptics who overcome their trouble should be of interest to those now suffering in this way.

The best advice one can give—but it is advice that is seldom heeded—is to eat slowly and masticate each mouthful carefully. However, if slow eating and careful mastication fail the next aid is one close to nature, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This remedy is an excellent digestant, and in addition to helping in the digestion of the food, acts gently on the liver and bowels, ridding them of the accumulation of waste that should long ago have been passed off. It is safe, reliable, pleasant tasting and results are guaranteed.

In the opinion of such people as Mr. L. J. Quinn, 1117 Newport Ave., Chicago, it is the ideal remedy for indigestion, no matter how severe, constipation no matter how chronic, biliousness, headaches, gas on the stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances.

Mr. Quinn says: "We use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a family remedy, no matter how severe, constipation no matter how chronic, biliousness, headaches, gas on the stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances."

cents or one dollar, the latter size being bought by heads of families already familiar with its merits. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

When you use Syrup Pepsin you will see the fallacy of chewing mints and tablets or of taking cathartics, salts, pills and similar drastic medicines. Unlike these, Syrup Pepsin does not lose its good effect, and by automatically training the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work, soon restores these organs to normal.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed to you.

You can obtain Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store for fifty

TEXAS KEEPS ANNIVERSARY.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 23.—In all the public schools of Texas special exercises were held today in commemoration of the seventy-eighth anniversary of the independence of the Lone Star state. It was on March 2, 1836, that the Texans, goaded by the tyrannical oppression of the Mexican Government, declared the independence of Texas and began the drafting of her constitution.

OLIVE Tablets Oil the Bowels

A Physician's Substitute for Dangerous Calomel.

When you feel that your liver and bowels need help take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Substitute for Calomel. Calomel is effective, but dangerous—causing bad after-effects.

Olive Tablets are especially made to take the place of Calomel. Dr. Edwards for years has been Calomel's foe. He saw its dangers and its disadvantages in 17 years' practice, treating patients for all kinds of liver and bowel complaints. In his efforts to do without Calomel he developed his now famous little olive-oil-colored tablets. Olive Tablets are mild but effective. Safe and sure. Pleasant to take but unfailing in results.

Olive Tablets oil the bowels just enough to start Nature's own action, and they tone up the liver at the same time. They are made from a rare combination of vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil.

If you want to regain that feeling of joyous buoyancy and clear thought take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. They work like a vacation. 10 and 25 cents per box.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

Fuller's Earth.

Fuller's earth, so named from its earliest use in fulling wool, is a rather rare, soft, friable rock whose value depends altogether on its texture and its filtering and absorbent properties. It has no definite composition; mineralogically, its physical properties rather than a chemical analysis determining its commercial value. Fuller's earth was first produced in the United States in the early nineties.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN

Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter.

Overworked, rundown, "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Miss Richter's experience. She says: "Last winter I was completely run down and felt fagged out all the time, was nervous and had indigestion. One of my friends advised me to take Vinol and it has done me great good. The tired, worn-out feeling is all gone and I am strong, vigorous and well. The stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have perfect digestion. I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol." Marie Richter, Detroit, Mich. Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present rugged health to the wonderful strength-creating effects of Vinol. We guarantee Vinol to build you up and make you strong. If it does not we give back your money. Smith Drug Co., Janesville, Wis.

Musterole—Quick Relief! No Blister!

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. It does all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub it on—and the pain is gone.

Millions of people have adopted MUSTEROLE in place of the mustard plaster.

You will find it in large hospitals. Doctors and nurses use MUSTEROLE and recommend it to their patients.

They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Colds, of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggists in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

Mrs. G. W. Thompson, San Antonio, Texas: "Musterole has helped me so much that I can hardly do without it."

THE STOLEN SINGER

"That's what I said when the reporters came—that you were so worried over your sick relative that you did not wait for anything."

Agatha groaned. "Did—the papers have much to say about my leaving town?"

"They had columns, Miss Redmond, and some of them had your picture on the front page with an announcement of your elopement. But Mr. Straker contradicted that; he told them he had heard from you, and that you were at the bedside of a dying relative. Besides that, Miss Redmond, the difficulty in getting up an elopement story was the lack of a probable man. Your manager and your accompanist were both found and interviewed, and there wasn't anybody else in New York except me who knew you. Your discretion, Miss Redmond, has always been remarkable."

Agatha was suddenly tired of Lizzie. "Very well, Lizzie, that will do. You may go and get your own things unpacked. We shan't return to New York for several days yet."

"You've heard from Mr. Straker, of course, Miss Redmond?"

"No, but I have written to him, explaining everything. Why?"

"Oh, nothing; only when I sent him word that I had heard from you, he said at first that he was coming here with me. Some business prevented him, but he must have telegraphed."

"Maybe he has; but it takes some time, evidently, for a hidden person to be discovered in Ilion."

As soon as the words were off her lips, Agatha realized that she had made a slip. One has to look sharp when talking to a sophisticated maid.

"But were you hiding, Miss Redmond?" Lizzie artlessly inquired.

"Oh, no, Lizzie; don't be silly. The telegram probably went wrong; telegrams often do."

"Not when Mr. Straker sends them," proffered Lizzie. "But if his telegrams have gone wrong, you may count on his coming down here himself. He is much worried over the rehearsals, which begin early in the month, he said. And he got the full directions you sent me for coming here; he would have them."

Agatha knew her manager's pertinacity when once on the track of an object. Moreover, the humor of the situation passed from her mind, leaving only a vivid impression of the trouble and worry which were sure to follow such a serious breaking up of well established plans. She was rarely capricious, even under vexation, but she yielded to a caprice at this moment, and one, moreover, that was very unjust toward her much-tried manager.

The thought of that man bursting in upon her in the home that had been the fastidious Hercules Thayer's, in the midst of her anxiety and sorrow over James Hambleton, was intolerable.

"If Mr. Straker should by any chance follow me here, you must tell him that I can not see him," she said, and departed, leaving Lizzie wrapped in righteous indignation.

"Well, I never!" she exclaimed, after her mistress had disappeared. "Can't see him, after coming all this way! And into a country like this, too, where there's only one bath-tub, and you fill that from a pump in the yard!"

CHAPTER XVI.

A Fighting Chance.

The dining-room of the old red house was cool, and fragrant from the blossoming heliotrope bed below its window. The twilight, which is long in eastern Maine, shed a soft glow over the old mahogany and silver, and an equally soft and becoming radiance over the two women seated at the table. After a sonorous blessing, uttered by Mrs. Stoddard in tones full of unctious, she and Agatha ate supper in a sympathetic silence. It was a meal upon which Lizzie Kingsbury expended her best powers as cook, with no mean results; but nobody took much notice of it, after all, Mrs.

days with James had given her an understanding of the case, and she was ready with new devices for his relief.

Agatha finished her tea and joined Mrs. Stoddard as she stood looking out into the twilight, seeing things not visible to the outward eye.

"Yes, that's it," she ended abruptly, thinking aloud; then including Agatha without any change of tone, she went on: "I think we'd better change our plans a little. I'm going up-stairs now to stay while your Mr. Hand goes over to the house for me. There are several things I want from home."

Agatha had no conception of having an opinion that was contrary to Mrs. Stoddard's, so completely was she won by her tower-like strength.

"You know, Mrs. Stoddard," she said earnestly, "that I want to be told at once, if there is any change."

"I know, child," the older woman replied, with a faraway look. "We are in the Lord's hands. He taketh the young in their might, and he healeth them that are nigh unto death. We can only wait his will."

Agatha was the product of a different age and a different system of thought. But she was still young, and the pressure of the hour revived in her some ghost of her Puritan ancestral faith, longing to become a reality in her heart again, if only for this dire emergency. She turned, eager but painfully embarrassed, to Mrs. Stoddard, detaining her by a touch on her arm.

"But you said, Mrs. Stoddard," she implored, "that the prayer of faith shall heal the sick. And I have been praying, too; I have tried to summon my faith. Do you believe that it counts—for good?"

Mrs. Stoddard's rapt gaze blessed Agatha. Her faith and courage were of the type that rise according to need. She drew nearer to her sanctuary, to the fountain of her faith, as her earthly peril waxed. Her voice rang with confidence as she almost chanted: "No striving toward God is ever lost, dear child. He is with us in our sorrow, even as in our joy."

Her strong hand closed over Agatha's for a moment, and then her steady, slow steps sounded on the stairs.

Agatha went into the parlor, whose windows opened upon the piazza, and from there wandered down the low steps, to the lawn. It was growing dusk, a still, comfortable evening.

Over the lawn lay the indescribable freshness of a region surrounded by many trees and acres of grass. Presently the old hound, Danny, came slowly from his kennel in the back yard, and paced the grass beside Agatha, looking up often with melancholy eyes into her face. Here was a living relic of her mother's dead friend, carrying in his countenance, his sorrow for his departed master.

Agatha longed to comfort him a little, convey to him the thought that she would love him, and try to understand his nature, now that his rightful master was gone. She talked softly to him, calling him to her but not touching him. Back and forth they paced, the old dog following closer and closer to Agatha's heels.

Back of the house was a path leading diagonally across to the wall which separated Parson Thayer's place from the meeting-house. The dog seemed intent on following this path. Agatha humored him, climbed the low stile and entered the churchyard. As the hound leaped the stile after her, he wagged his tail and appeared happy. Agatha remembered that Lizzie had told her, on the day of her arrival, of the dog, and how he was accustomed to walk every evening with his master. Doubtless they sometimes walked here, among the silent company assembled in the churchyard; and the minister's silent friend was now having the peculiar satisfaction of doing again what he had once done with his master. Thus the little acre of the dead had its claim on life, and its happiness for throbbing hearts.

That Corn Is a Sure 'Goner' Now

"GETS-IT" the New-Plan Corn Cure,
Gets Any Corn Surely, Quickly.

"You'll say, 'It does beat all how quick 'GETS-IT' got rid of that corn. It's almost magic.' 'GETS-IT' gets every corn, every time, as sure as the sun rises. It takes about 2 seconds to apply it. Corns melt up, you forget the corn, the corn shrivels up, and it's gone! Ever try anything like that? You never did. There's no more fussing with plasters that press on the corn, no more knives that take off the surrounding flesh, no more bandages. No more knives, files or razors that make corns grow, and cause distressing blood poisoning. 'GETS-IT' is equally harmless to healthy or irritated flesh. It 'gets' every corn, wart, callus and bunion safe and sure."

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Janesville by: McKee & Ross, Smith Drug Co., Reliable Drug Co., J. T. Baker & Son.

The tempests that rattle and kill off the cattle and freeze up the combs of the roosters and hens, that worry the granges whose stock is in danger, the mules in their stables, the pigs in their pens—the loud winds that frolic like sprites with the colic and carry despair to the workman's flat, the wild raging blizzard that chills a man's gizzard, they all come a-whooping from Medicine Hat. When men get together and note that the weather is fixing for ructions, preparing a storm, they cry: "Julius Caesar! The square-headed geezer who's running the climate should try to reform! The winter's extensive and coal's so expensive that none can keep warm but the blamed phooctor! It's time that the public should some weather dub lick! It's time for a lynching a Medicine Hat!" And when the sun's shining we still are repining: "This weather," we murmur, "is too good to last; just when we're haw-hawing because we are thawing there'll come from the Arctic a sternwinding blast; just when we are dancing and singing and prancing, there'll come down a wind that would freeze a stone cat; just

Real Estate Agents, This Is For You!

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, we tried, in this space, to wake up the OWNERS of the properties you have listed—tried to make them see that they ought to allow you to spend some of THEIR MONEY in these real estate columns to HELP YOU to secure buyers for their property. Did we succeed?

If not, why don't YOU try to wake them up.

Talk to them like a "Dutch uncle!"

Tell them that YOU KNOW that The Gazette real estate advertisements reach over four thousand MORE families than any other Janesville daily newspaper and that YOU CAN PROVE IT.

And you can—you can prove it by us. If it so happens that YOU don't know this well enough to tell your clients so, WE CAN PROVE IT TO YOU.

By the way, have you any property listed in these columns today?

If not, be sure to have your name here TOMORROW.

To be reaching for business through the columns of the greatest newspaper between Chicago and Minneapolis is a mighty good way of telling people that YOU are an ACTIVE realty man.

You can place your ad direct to The Gazette by calling 77-2 before 12 tomorrow morning, or we will have a solicitor see you if you wish it.

Criticism of Modern Students.

One very well-known character at Oxford used to say that modern undergraduates were sadly inferior to their predecessors, who had constantly employed him when they went out with gun or rod. "There's a very idle set of gentlemen at the university nowadays. They never shoots; they never goes a-fishing. They does nothing—nothing but read, read, read, from morning till night."
